

Results

Kevin Zamora Amela

2 questions require grading

0 %

0

Out of 2 points

06:54

Time for this attempt

Your Answers:

1

1 point possible Essay

What does business-information technology alignment mean?

Maximum 100 words.

Business–IT alignment is the strategic process of integrating an organization’s information technology (IT) infrastructure, strategy, and investments with its general business objectives to ensure technology effectively drives business value generation.

Waiting for grade

32 words 100 max (word limit)

2

1 point possible Essay

What are the characteristics of an organisation with good business-IT alignment?

Maximum 200 words.

Organizations with good business-IT alignment treat technology as a strategic asset rather than a support resource, ensuring that IT initiatives directly drive business growth and efficiency.

Waiting for grade

