Results

Kevin Zamora Amela

4 questions require grading

0 %

0

Out of 4 points

15:42

Time for this attempt

Your Answers:

1 1 point possible Essay

What is the definition of ethics?

Maximum 50 words.

Ethics is a set of moral principles and rules that guide human behavior. It helps people distinguish right from wrong, making fair decisions in both daily life and professional situations.

Waiting for grade

30 words 50 max (word limit)

2 1 point possible Essay

What does an ‘ethical issue’ mean?

Maximum 50 words.

An ethical issue is a situation, problem, or decision that forces a person or organization to choose between actions that must be evaluated as right or wrong, fair or unfair, or acceptable or unacceptable according to moral values.

Waiting for grade

38 words 50 max (word limit)

3 1 point possible Essay

List and briefly describe five approaches that can be applied when deciding on ethical issues.

Maximum 250 words.

Ethical issues applications:

- Utilitarian Approach: Focuses on the consequences of actions. The goal is to choose the option that produces the greatest good and the least harm for the maximum number of people.
- Rights Approach: Based on respecting and protecting the moral rights of every human being, such as privacy, truth, safety, and freedom, ensuring no individual's dignity is violated.
- Fairness (or Justice) Approach: Strives to treat all human beings equally or, if unequally, fairly according to a defensible standard (avoiding favoritism or discrimination).
- Common Good Approach: Assumes that individual well-being is connected to the well-being of the community. It focuses on actions that maintain societal institutions, systems, and environments that benefit everyone.
- Virtue Approach: Focuses on character and personal integrity. It asks whether an action reflects essential virtues, such as honesty, courage, compassion, fairness, and loyalty.

Waiting for grade

137 words 250 max (word limit)

4 1 point possible Essay

What is a code of ethics? And what are the basic principles involved?

Maximum 150 words.

A code of ethics is a formal document that sets out clear guidelines, values, and standards of conduct to guide decision-making and behavior within an organization or profession.

Basic Principles Involved:

- Integrity: Acting with honesty, fairness, and strong moral principles in all professional actions.
- Accountability: Taking full responsibility for actions, choices, and their consequences.
- Respect: Protecting individual rights, privacy, dignity, and equality.
- Compliance: Following relevant laws, industry regulations, and professional standards.
- Transparency: Communicating openly, clearly, and truthfully without misleading stakeholders.

Waiting for grade

80 words 150 max (word limit)